New Business:

Rich Stout Introduction

- Stout said he coaches baseball for West Branch youth and coordinates pickleball three times a week

Selection of a regular day/time to meet

- Decided on the 4th Thursday of each month to be regular meeting time
- Next meeting is August 24th

‘Mural’ Park

- People sound on board with the idea
- Look into potentially getting tables and shade
- Shade could be trees or structures

Ranking Potential Project Ideas

- Large:
 1. Pool
 2. Rec. Center
 3. Splash Pad
- Medium:
 1. Pickleball – could be a multi-use court with basketball hoops. Talked about retractable fencing due to Wapsi Park being in a floodplain
 2. Additional trails – could be a longer-term project. Could be an in-town trail. Adding an addition to the trail at Cubby was mentioned
 3. Additional/upgraded restrooms
 4. New pavilion – could be rentable like Beranek Park
- Small:
 1. Addition benches/picnic tables– could be at Mural Park or elsewhere
 2. Adding shade at Cubby Park – could be attached to the existing structure or added over bleachers
 3. Bike air station

Comments from Commission, Parks and Recreation Director, or City Administrator

- Bring fundraising ideas to next meeting
- Brainstorms ways to keep West Branch kids in West Branch for sport
